The Victim of a Bellicose Wife Seeking Redress.

MAKING NIGHT HIDEOUS.

One of Tweed's Sinecurists Fails to Get His Pay.

Added to the already apparently interminable list of divorce suits is one just brought by Michael McNamara against his wife, Mary McNamara, which came before Chief Justice Curtis in the Superior Court, Special Term, yesterday, on a motion for a reference The parties were married in 1855. During the last two years, and down to the 27th of last March, the deendant, as plaintiff alleges, forgetful of her marriage vow, to love, cherish and obey him, has carried on and continually kept up a course of violent, abusive and outrageous conduct and behavior toward him to such an extent as to render his life with her inand outrageous conduct and behavior toward him to such an extent as to render his life with her intelerable. He says that she has contracted habits of drunkenness, and becomes frequently so intoxicated as to lose all self-control, at which times it is her custom to leave her home and to remain absent for many hours in company with dissolute companions on protracted sprees, and that when she came home at unseemly hours in the hight would arouse the whole neighborhood with her shouts and threatening language. She would attack him, while querily siceping in his bed, with the state of a summary to the state of furniture as might come readily at hand, and some times would assault him so violently as to drive him hat to the street. On the 1st of last January, being in the toxicated, she drove him, he says, out of the house, when he took reluge in the stable, where she pursed him, and occupied herselt with treasing the whole neighborhood. On another occasion, in March last, being also under the influence of liquor, she went for him, dru with a chair, thon with a sharp carving knite, and finally there as chair at him with great lorce, striking him on the ribs so forcibly as to "make him sick and sore." He ran into the street, where she pursued him about nine or ten blocks, calling him vie names, until she overtook him and hurled a large stone at him, which struck him on the back of the head, indicing a aerious scalp wound. He was conveyed to a police station, where his wound was dressed, but he still continues to suffer from the effects of his injuries. He had her arrested and held to bail in $300. No sooner was she discharged, however, than she went off on another spree, and when she returned home late at night and found him in bed whe at bace revewed hostities and attacked him, first with a large tin pail and then with a heavy from lid. Mr. McNamara lutriner complaining, says that one morning, about four months prior to the commencement of this suit, she aroused him from his sleep, and taking a loaded revolver fired derable. He says that she has contracted

INTERESTING TO MERCHANTS.

A case specially interesting to merchants in the sale and equally so to lawyers in the points of law involved, was argued yesterday before the Supreme Court, General Term. The matter came up on writ of error obtained in the case of Gustavus Abbott, a Boston merchant, convicted before Recorder Hackett in the Court of General Sessions at the last February term of obtaining goods from Frederick D. Hiske, of No. 79 Worth street, on a credit of ninety days through alleged false representation as to his solvency, and upon wince conviction he was seatched to the State Prison for three years. The goods were purchased on September 2, 1875, and on the lat of December following Abbott was forced into involuntary bankruptey, when it was discovered from the schoulder field that he was inselvent at the time of the purchase. Mr. William F. Kantzing, who appeared for the prisoner, made a very elaborate argument, citing copious authorities to sustain the points he raised. He contended that in consequence of inquiries made as to the financial constitution of Abbott at the time of the purchase and the reliance by Mr. Blake upon the result of such inquiries, that the latter sold the goods not upon Abbott's statement, but upon the report as to the latter's financial status at the time, and that the pretence set forth in the indictinent was not such as would mislead any business man of ordinary produces and caution in the sale of goods. He contended, further, that the General Sessions had no jurisdiction of the effects. It belief that the distinction, it being provided by the statute unuer the language and can be shall, through General Sessions had no jurisdiction of the offence, the United States Court, as he channed, having jurisdiction, it being provided by the statute unner the Bankrupt act that any person who shall, through fraud or laise pretences, ebenin goods before commencement of proceedings in bankruptey shall be putished by three years' imprisonment. Mr. Kinzing also urged that the Court below erred in admitting in evidence the achedules filed in bankruptey proceedings to prove a special indebtedness, it being drained that the schedules represented alleged claims and not the just debts and liabilities. District Altoriesy Phelps, who appeared for the people, contended that the conviction in all respects was grouper, that the prisoner was guilty of gross fraud and that the Court below committed he errors. The Court took the papers, reserving the decision.

VERDICTS FOR THE CITY.

George W. Bull during the years 1870 and 1871 held what was claimed to be a sinccure appointment as cierk in the Department of Public Works, under Tweed, the quid pro quo, as alleged, being services rendered by Mr. Bull as Albany correspondent of a Buffalo paper. When the King troubles came on, in the fail of 1871, Mr. Buil, as was clarmed, left Albany and returned to the department to perform his duties as clerk. In spite of this extraordinary devotion to and returned to the department to perform his detical as clerk. In spite of this extraordinary devotics to his public duties Buil was never paid for the months of September, October and November, 1871, his savary was $4,500 per annum, and his claim for these three months ($450) was assigned to U. B. Sage, who brought suit against the city. Judge Barrett, before whom the cause was trued yesterday, in Supremo Court, Circuit, diamessed the complaint, following the occasion in the case of O'Connor vs. The Mayor, on the ground that the parrolls upon which Buill's hame appeared for the months in question were not properly certified by the Commissioner of Public Works, as required by the charter of 1870. Messix, Kitchell & Jeniffe appeared for the pianuff and David J. Dean and Chables P. Miller, assistants to the Counsel to the Corporation, for the city.

Lowis G. Brander was secretary to the Board created by the Legislature in 1871 for heening druggests and druggests' clerks. The Board itself his board provided that the fees received for license should be applied by the Board to the payment of its expenses, and that any occitioney should be ranged by the Supervisors of the county of New York by tax. Mr. Brander's savary for a portion of 1852 was unpaid and the funds received for license were exhausted. He therefore brought an action against the city. The inter depended upon the ground that the supervisors have never levied any tax to meet this dedicance of the heense und. The pianuff and the supervisors have never levied any tax to meet this dedicance of the heense und. The pianuff demurred to thus delence; but in an opinion handed down yesterday Judge Van Vorst his held the delence good, and that the city is not inable to pay until the supervisors have raised the becessary thinds. Mr. Effect Sandford appeared to the panniff, and David J. Dean, Assistant Corporation Counsel, for the cay.

IMPORTANT ATTACHMENT CASE.

Judge J. F. Daty yesterday rendered a decision in the suit of William E. Augrews vs. David Schwartz and Issac Stieff, which was a suit brought upon an unliquidated demand for certain royalties alleged to manufacture of oils from animal fat, under a process of which plainted is patentee. The defendants deny the deremants on the ground that they were about to dispose of their property and leave the State in order to defraud their creditors. The case came before the Court on a motion to vacate this attachment. It seems that several months after the commencement of the action the detendance factory in 117th street burned down and their customess choses. They accordingly sold out want property they had saved, collected their insurance and one of the detendance went to leave, large part of the fiscarance and made various actilements. Juage Daty in the course of his opinion says that he seem nothing in the evidence to satisfy nim that the deremants incended to realize on their assets and abscend in order to defrance the plannial or other inaccures creditors, and he ands that there is nothing extraordinary in their acts. The Juage goes on to say:—"I we in the desenuants on the ground that they were there, and he must that there is nothing extraordinary in their acts. The Judge goes on to say:—"I see in defendants, conduct nothing of those of circumstances which mark the absconding deutor—20 haste, no secrecy, no mouve for flying with their associate. For some who are seed theve a perfect r_{in} in to give up turing negs if it does not pay or their factory is burned of pay or secare their creditors. An attachment should not resus unless it clearly appears has not one construction as to be placed on their edge. FILTHY GUTTERS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD :-I desire to call the attention of the health authorities to the condition of the gutters on the block in Front street, between Beekman street and Peck silp.
The accumulation of decayed matter is very sickening, and as the warm weather is coming this matter ought to be attended to.

A STUPID RULE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD :-The Houston street ferry toll takers insist on laying down the change instead of putting it in the open hand of the waiting passengers. Many passengers often lose a boat in this way, which they could reach it not him-dered by the stupid adherence to a custom which has been abandoned at all the other ferries. Will Mr. Waterbury look after the matter?

FERRY PASSENGER.

BREEDING A PESTILENCE.

To THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:description is strewed on the roudway, and more description is strewed on the roadway, and more especially from Peck slip to Fulton street. The stench arising therefrom is enough to broad a pestilence. The pavement is also in a bad condition on both sides of the railroad track, and dangerous to life and limb. It should be attended to immediately. G.

CAN THE BOARD OF HEALTH SMELL? TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD :-

Thousands of people daily cross the Houston street ferry and are greeted on landing in New York with the most insufferable steach, arising from the emptying of the sower into an usused dock at the foot of Houston street. The sewage seems to fill the dock and the nextous gases arising therefrom must jeopardize the health of everyoody who crosses the ferry or who lives in the vicinity. Will the Board of Health look after it?

PUBLIC SCHOOL ATTENDANCE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD :-

Can any one inform me why the pupils of the male department of Grammar School No. 68 (Sixth avenue and 128th street) have to enter school so much earlier than the scholars of other schools in Hartem? My son lives at quite a distance from the zehool and has to start very early in the morning in order to be there in time. It that school opened at the time that the other schools do be would not have to start for nearly half an nour later than he does at present.

BAILBOAD EXCUSSION TICKETS. TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:-

Last Friday morning I bought an excursion ticket at Katonah for New York. After transacting my businoss I left Park row at thirteen minutes past four for the Grand Central Depot, having abundant time to the Grand Central Depot, having abundant time to reach the five minutes before five Harlom train. By a blockade of the Fourth avenue cur, in which I was riding, I was detained so long as to bring me to Forty-second street too late for this, the last, train to Katomh. I was obliged to stay over night at a hotel, Saturday morning the ticket agent rolused to receive the excursion licket as part paymont for a regular ticket, but composed me to buy a regular ticket, thus making my trip of ninety miles cost me $3 05. Cannot some way be adopted to rid us of this injustice?

AN INDIGNANT PASSENGER,

A SWINDLE ON LANDLORDS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:-Before the era of high prices the charge of a city marshal for serving a dispossess warrant was seventy-five cents. For several years past the charge has been $4; and, in my epinion, this charge is simply exter-tionate on the landlord and demoralizing in its effects tionate on the landlord and demoralizing in its effects on a large class of tenants who take advantage of the lact that a landlord dislikes to pay away 34 for a disposses warrant if it can possibly be avoided, and therefore dilly-inly and laisely promise to pay the rent from time to time until there is an accumulation of several months' arrears, when they move and repeat the same programme in some other locality, resulting to the disadvantage of honest tenants a well as landlords. The law should be immediately aftered to allow $1 as the charge for a dispossess warrant instead of $4.

THE SIXPENNY SAVINGS BANK.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:—

Why cannot the depositors of the Sixpenny Savings Bank receive a forty per cent dividend at once? The which can be turned into cash at an hour's notice. Let him immediately commence paying a dividend. It is cierks in the meantime can compute the interest due depositors in time to allow for it in the second applicand. Into this interest has not been reckoned is the reason which the receiver assigns for his delay.

The creations of Thomas Rowe, in bankrupicy because the reason which the receiver assigns for his delay. is the reason which the receiver assigns for his delay. I would also suggest that he should peraint the committee appointed by the depositors to inspect the books of the defunct institution. They have made very serious charges in their published report. The committee claim that the records bear testimony to committee claim that the retorus court the truth of these charges, but the receiver stands in the way and torbids them to examine the manner in which the officers have used or misused the property of the depositors.

UNDERSIZED SHAD. TO THE EDITOR OF THE REBALD:-

I desire to call your attention and that of the public to the fact that shad are being caught in the Hudson River and New York Bay and sold in the markets or streets of the city at an age when they are entirely too smail. They weigh often only half a pound and do not exceed a pound and a bail, are taken on lykes in the harbor and are soid for five cents each. These same fish in a year or two would attain a weight of three to five pounds, and would then be fit for the table. Such a desiraction of fail grows shid must lead to a diminution in the supply in spits of all efforts to replenish the fisheries, and should be prevented if possible. The Legislature cannot be induced to pass proper and efficient laws to protect shad and other fish, and there is great complaint of the pound attach fish, and there is great complaint of the pound hets and fykes around Staten Issaud and Long Island, where they have atterfy desiroyed the excellent sport which up to the time of their introduction had been enjoyed to catching striped bass and weak fish. Unless the fishing is regulated both as to the times when it is permitted and the size of the mesh of the nest many of our most valuable seacoust and migratory fishes will soon be things of the past. This has better be attended to now than when there are no fish to protect, but in the meantime the public dan do something by refusing to purchase such miscrably undersized chast.

SUSTAINING A REGISTER'S DECISION. Judge Choate gave a decision yesterday in the case of Auson G. Dodge and others. The Register in nankruptcy had expunged the claim of the New Haven Trust Company, of which form a proof bal been made Trust Company, of which form a proof had been made on two promissory notes. These notes had been made payable by Dodgo & Co. to White & Co., and were placed by the latter in the hands of note brokers for negotiation. The New Haven Trust Company perchased the notes before maturity at a discount higher than seven percent. The notes were accommodation notes for White & Co. and had their inception as contracts in negotiation with the New Haven Trust Company. It was claimed that by the law of the State of New York the notes were usurious and void. The brokers offered these notes to to New Haven Trust Company at ten percent, and the latter purchased them, paying for them by a check. The Register of Backruptey held that the law or New York and not that of Con-necticut governs the case, and that the notes were void. Judge Choate sustains the Register's decision.

THE SILK ASSOC ATION.

The annual meeting of the Silk Association of America was held yesterday at its office, No. 93 Donne street, at which the secretary, Mr. Franklin Allen, presented an exhaustive report of the transac-

Ailen, presented an exhaustive report of the transactions of the susception for the year and the condition of the suk trade of America. After speaking of the business of the association the report goes on to say of the proposed tariff changes:—

During the present session of Congress a further element of uncertainty has been introduced by the prospect of reinsation apon the tariff, which has discouraged entrypise. The recurrence of this occasion of doubt and embarrassioned with ouch are estive meeting of our national legislature necessarily limits or prevents large modertakings in trade or commerce and thus periodically inprise. The recurrence of this occasion of dealt and embarrassional with each successive meeting of our astional legislature necessarily limits or prevents large undertakings in trade or commerce and thus periodically indicas a heavy burier not the manufacturer. Unline to the prominence given in the reports and mediorials of the SIR assemblion to the subject of franks on the revenue, by the undervaluation of imported goods, the Transury logarithm has taken steps toward more thoroughly investigating these practices. The hope-often disappointed that semathing will be actually done to check such trades is again review under the vigorous administration of the present excited by a trade of the property of the property

One thing is certain—the systematic underwaination of foreign market values has grown to such proportions under the ad vatorein system as to call totally for some sort of change. The compaint comes up from American merchants in every importing city—from Boston and Pathacelpitus, from Cheage, Circhinaat and Baltimore. It is not alone the legitimate importing business of New York mercannis that has suffered a rious loss—it is a matter in which the mercanile interest of the whole condity is concerned. Now that the evils that resure from this illegitimate practice are so generally recognized, it us hope that the investigations begun with such spirit by the new administration will some compet an improvement in the mode of collecting the revenue and clevat; the standards of commercial locusity.
